European Charter Discussion . . .

Recently a meeting was held to discuss the charters which will be taking interested members of the Scandinavian Centre to visit Europe during the course of 1966.

Otto von Rosen of PWA felt that many people have questions about charter travel and it would perhaps be helpful to get together to discuss the problems that arise in the minds of the travellers and to offer assistance to those who are planning a trip. Mrs. Nancy Zwartendyk of World Wide Travel pointed out that she can arrange all hotels, tours, air connections to other points in Europe, travel documents and all other arrangements at no extra charge to the traveller - a fact which many people do not realize. Harald Frohn of SAS mentioned that there is a special facility whereby unlimited air travel for a 3-month period is available within Sweden at a price of $99.00. Such features as these are of interest to anyone contemplating a trip to Europe and, with the assistance of the travel representatives, these features and many others - may be brought to the attention of those anticipat ing a trip.

Eric Pierre, who is handling the PWA charter in May, and Mrs Nielsen, who is handling the Wardair charter in July, felt that such a meeting would serve the dual purpose of guiding the inexperienced traveller who does not always know how to proceed, and of informing the inexperienced and experienced alike of the many possibilities with regard to onward connections, special facilities available, tours, rail passes, etc.

"Travel Evening" but it will be announced well in advance in the Scandinavian Centre News.

SKI RACE WITH VIKING TRADITIONS

LILLEHAMMER, Norway - The annual "Birkebeiner" ski race will be held on March 20. It is a historical cross-country race with masitors, racing from Rena to Lillehammer by the ancient Viking route ago, when two Vikings saved the King's son, Haakon Haakonson, from falling into enemy hands.

Over 600 Attend Fall Festival Of Sons Of Norway

A record crowd of over 600 attended the regular fall festival of Sons of Norway, a "Lutefisk Supper". The weatherman favored us with a topnotch weekend. Folks came from Saskatchewan, Wetaskiwin, and Camrose. Mr. and Mrs. Carlson from the Northern clime and Mr. B. Solum from Vancouver, B.C.

The tables were decorated with colored tapers and miniature Norwegian flags and set with the traditional Norwegian fare - Lutefisk, meatballs, lefse, salads, ham and Norwegian pastries. The diningroom hostesses were Lydia Naverseth and Lilian Ness.

Work begins early in the morning with the kitchen of the Masonic Temple becoming a beehive of activity, and continuing all day. The co-operation of all who helped was much appreciated - a BIG THANK YOU everyone.

The after supper entertainment was a program convened by Joe Lineham. Mrs. Taylor at the piano and Carl Elgstrand's orchestra opened the program with a medley of Norwegian tunes. Taking part in an amusing "Army skit" were Sgt. Cecil Elton and his son Burton, Alan Stead, Danny Lineham, Warren Clark and Joe Lineham. A musical duet was given by Chris Blaylock on the guitar and Gil Erickson on the banjo. A solo "The Soldiers Song" was sung in Norwegian by Irene Hovde. Two solos were sung by Joe Lineham, "My Dream of the Mandalay. Carl Elgstrand did a good impersonation of Louie Armstrong. The stage setting was a huge military tent with stacked rifles and out front in bold letters was the name "Militairie Leir, Spreng Som Galen". The program was rounded off with a sing-song of old army songs and "Ja Ve Elsker". Mr. Ed Ness was Master of Ceremonies.

PROJECT '66 . . .

By now many of you have made New Years Resolutions and fully intend to make a real effort of carrying these out, at least for a little while. Sometimes we are determined that we will improve our character which certainly does not hurt anyone of us. My suggestion for a Resolution is that you make a will, if you have not already done so. Certain situations arise that prompt one to say 'I must make a will sometime', but is this ever done? It is not enough only to make plans for the future, this must be put into a written form. Make up your mind what you want done with all the things you own and then have a will drawn up. When there is a large estate it is customary to have the will drawn up by an attorney who is familiar with rules of construction and of evidence. This is not necessary in the validity of a will, which may be written by any one so long as it is properly signed and witnessed.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEET DECEMBER 14, 1965 . . .

- Our Annual Meeting will be held on February 15, 1965 at the Scandinavian Centre.
- Wallace K. Broen, C.A., has agreed to take over the duties of Auditor. He will make a complete audit and yearend statement for the Annual Meeting.
- Wm. Halldorson will act as Chairman of Ticket Sales for Scandapades '66.
- Two exhaust fans have been installed in the Viking Room.

SCANDAPADES '66 - JANUARY 22, 1966 ...

The cast of this year's show is rehearsing twice a week under the Directorship of Jack Unwin. A great deal of preparation has gone into this project and all indications are that it will be a 'smashing' show. There will be two orchestras John Bergstrom and Elsie Commins in attendance for your dancing pleasure which will include everything from the waltz and fox trot to the frug and swim. The usual Scandinavian goodies and coffee will be available so do plan to meet your friends at the Jubilee Auditorium on the evening of January 22, 1966. This is the once-a-year meeting of the Scandinavian Clan of Northern Alberta and I do hope to see you there.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR SHUT-INS . . .

In last months' paper a request was made for assistance in setting up a pattern for entertainment for a city hospital. I was most pleased to get a telephone call the same day that the paper came out. Carl Elgstrand has volunteered to produce a show that will be suitable for the patients at the Good Samaritan Hospital. Apparently he is doing this type of work for the patients at the University Hospital at present

Mr. Elgstrand's talents are being called on quite Mr. and Mrs. Harold Markstrom, frequently during the Christmas Season so the patients at the 10535 Lauderdale Road, on Satur-Good Samaritan Hospital will see him in the latter part of January.

CHANGE OF ADDRESSES . . .

There is always a problem with any publication that has a mailing list similar to the Scandinavian News. If a shareholder moves it is necessary to let us know the new address Births . . . as well as the exact way your name appears on the old address. To Roy and Charlotte Samuelson, a When several persons have almost the same name we need very exacting information in order that a reasonably close To Gerald and Diane Bergquist, a check can be made. Should you know of a shareholder who does not get the paper, there is a reason, quite often it being that he neglected to say he was moving and where to. In my mail I get many notices that say moved, address unknown. This should not be unless the respective party no longer wishes to receive the paper.

Anybody Going To Copenhagen, Denmark Soon?

We will start by telling you about City Hall Square (Raadhuspladsen), it may well be described as the heart of Copenhagen, it is, too the popular meeting place of the people on red-letter days. From here extend some of the city's main thoroughfares such as the new broad H. C. Andersens Boulevard which runs into Langebro, one of the two connecting bridges to Amager, and the busy thoroughfare leading westward, which at its beginning is called Vesterbros Passage. This is a popular promenade and an impressive sight at night with its myriads of flashing neon signs.

In spite of its size, Raadhuspladsen has an intimate character. Surrounded by banks, newspaper-offices large commercial buildings and restaurants, the square is, however, dominated by the City Hall with its 105 metre high tower, from the top of which can be had a splendid view of the city and its environs. The City Hall is used for the official reception of distinguished visitors. Within its walls are the City Corporation chambers as well as a number of municipal administrative offices.

Hours of admission to the towers: Sundays and public holidays throughout the year, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., further from May 1st to June 14th and from September 1st to September 30th, Mondays to Fridays (inclusive) 12:00 noon to 3:00 p.m. and Saturdays 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. In a room off the main entrance of the City Hall is Jens Olsen's World Clock which on its eighteen dials indicate local time, mean time, sideral time and the exact time anywhere in the world, shows the hours of sunrise and sunset, a calendar of movable feasts and the position of the stars, etc. The construction of the clock - which has twelve movements took more than fifty yeahs to complete. Open to visitors daily.

So don't forget to go there if you are in Copenhagen. More about Copenhagen next month.

Kristina Elaine, daughter of Ray and Doreen Nyroos, and Sandra Lynn, daughter of Lennart and Joan Peterson, were christened at Augustana Lutheran Church on Sunday, December 19th. Receptions to celebrate the occasions were held by the parents in their respective homes following the ceremony.

Danish Film Shown On November 28th

On November 28th we showed a Danish Film called 'Forelsket i Kobenhavn', we had no way of advertising it properly - we just phoned and talked to everyone we saw and we had a fairly good crowd considering, but we have heard a lot of people say they were sorry they did not know or they would have been there. We hope we can add these people and many more who read this paper, to come to our second film to be shown on Sunday, January 16th, 8:00 p.m. This time it will be 'POETEN og LILLEMOR', maybe some of you know it. It is supposed to be a good film. Of course, it is only worthwhile for the ones who understand Danish, as the whole thing is in the Danish language. We don't know who the actors are but have heard it should be good, so come and see for yourself, we don't think you will be disoppointed. The title is really 'POETEN og LILLEMOR og LOTTE'. The collection amounted to $11.40 and will be used to help buy things for the Children's Christmas Party. Hostesses were Mrs. A. Leino and pared very delicious coffee, cake business to be handled. Finland's and cookies after the program, Independence Day was also cele- Santa Claus made his appearance and had gifts for everyone. Thank Anja Leino presented a recitation you all for contributing to Santa's bag. We hope that this will become a yearly custom. Many thanks to arranged a most beautiful and the decorating committee for the beautiful decorations which adorned the hall.

Guests at the Christmas party included friends from Esthonia and we hope they had an enjoyable time. It would be very encouraging if we could have more joint action with them as in many other places here across the ocean. For example the New York Esthonians and Finns have a very rich functioning co-operative.

A sewing circle will be held on January 19th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. Leino, 13555 - 124A Avenue. Everyone is cordially invited.

A surprise house-warming party was held for Mr. and Mrs. Louste -Aarne Palja on December 11. Best wishes in your new home.

We are happy to hear that Mr. party held December 4. It was a and Mrs. V. Kujala are now the owners of a brand new "Sauna".
